- 5.4 The Board shall comprise:
- 5.4.1 the persons elected at the Annual General Meeting of the Company in accordance with Article 5.6; and
- 5.4.2 any co-opted Directors appointed from time to time by the Board pursuant to Article 5.10.

- 5.6 At every Annual General Meeting the Company shall elect (in accordance with procedures determined by the Board from time to time) to serve as Directors of the Company:
- 5.6.1 the Honorary Officers; and
- 5.6.2 up to seventeen other Directors,
- who shall take office from the conclusion of the Annual General Meeting at which they are appointed.
- 5.7 No person shall be appointed or reappointed as a Director at any General Meeting (including any Annual General Meeting):
- (a) unless he has attained the age of 18 years;

- (b) in circumstances such that, had he already been a Director, he would have been disqualified from acting under the provisions of Article 5.13;
 - (c) where he has previously been a Director and was disqualified from acting under the provisions of Article 5.13.
- 5.8 Not less than seven nor more than twenty-eight clear days before the date appointed for holding a General Meeting notice shall be given to all persons who are entitled to receive notice of the meeting of any person who is recommended by the Board for appointment or reappointment as a Director at the meeting or in respect of whom notice has been duly given to the Company of the intention to propose him at the meeting for appointment or reappointment as a Director. The notice shall give the particulars of that person which would, if he were so appointed or reappointed, be required to be included in the Company's register of the members of the Board.
- 5.9 Subject as aforesaid, the Company may from time to time in General Meeting increase or reduce the number of Directors and may make the appointments necessary for effecting any such increase.
- 5.10 The Board may appoint a person who is willing to act to be a Director either to fill a vacancy or as an additional Director provided that:
- 5.10.1 the appointment does not cause the number of Directors to exceed any number fixed by or in accordance with the Articles as the maximum number of Directors; and

5.14 Any Director whose membership of the Board has been terminated as a result of him being in breach of Article 5.13(f) may appeal to the Board in respect of such termination by serving written notice requesting an appeal within 21 days of his / her termination. 6. PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD

- 6.1 Subject to the provisions of the Articles, the Board may meet, adjourn and otherwise regulate their proceedings as they think fit but in any event shall meet at least four times in any Year. Two Directors may request that the Secretary call a meeting of the Board. It shall not be necessary to give notice of a meeting to a Director who is absent from the United Kingdom.

- 6.3 Except for the chairman of the meeting, who in the case of an equality of votes has a second or casting vote, every Director has one vote on each issue. Questions arising at a meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes.
- 6.4 The Board may act notwithstanding any vacancies but, if the number of Directors is less than the number fixed as the quorum, the continuing Directors may act only for the purpose of filling vacancies or of calling a General Meeting.

- 6.5 A meeting of the Directors (or any committee established by it) may be held either in person or by suitable electronic means agreed by the Directors in which all participants may communicate with all the other participants.
- 6.6 The Chairman (appointed pursuant to Article 5.6) shall preside at every meeting of Board at which he is present. But if there is no Director holding that office, or if the Chairman is unwilling or unable to preside or is not present within five minutes after the time appointed for the meeting, the Vice-Chairman shall preside. In the absence or unwillingness of both the Chairman and the Vice-Chairman, the Directors present may appoint one of their number to be chairman of the meeting.
- 6.7 A Written resolution circulated to all the Directors who would have been eligible to vote on the matter at a meeting of the Board and approved by a simple majority of them is as valid as a resolution passed at a meeting and for this purpose:
- (a) the number of Directors who approve the resolution must be at least as many as would be required to form a quorum at a meeting of the Directors; and
 - (b) the resolution may be contained in more than one document and will be treated as passed on the date of the last signature.
- 6.8 The Board may delegate any of its powers or the implementation of any of its resolutions to any committee provided that:
- (a) the resolution making that delegation shall specify those who shall serve or be asked to serve on such committee (although the resolution may allow the committee to make co-options up to a specified number);
 - (b) the composition of a committee shall be entirely in the discretion of the Board save that Honorary Officers shall be entitled to attend and vote at meetings of any committee;
 - (c) the resolution making that delegation shall prescribe the terms of reference for a committee including (a) the extent of any delegated responsibility and/or authority and (b) any such terms or conditions as the Board may from time to time think fit;

- (d) the deliberations and decisions of each committee shall be reported regularly to the Board by the chairman of the committee;
- (e) all delegations under this Article shall be revocable at any time;
- (f) for the avoidance of doubt, the Board may delegate all financial matters to any committee and shall be empowered to resolve upon the operation of any bank account according to such mandate as it shall think fit from time to time provided that the payment of money from such account shall require two signatures, at least one of which shall be that of a Director.

6.9 All acts done by a meeting of the Board, or a committee shall, notwithstanding that it be afterwards discovered that there was a defect in the appointment of any Director or member of the committee or that any of them were disqualified from holding office, or had vacated office, or were not entitled to vote, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed and was qualified and had continued to be a Director or a member of the committee (as the case may be) and had been entitled to vote.

6.10 The Senior Honorary Officers may attend meetings of the Board and may speak on any issue but may not vote and the Board may also invite any person to attend its meetings and to observe proceedings and to speak on any issue as requested but such person may not vote.

6.11 A Director must avoid a situation in which he has an interest or duty that conflicts or possibly may conflict with the interests of the Company. This duty is not infringed if:

- (a) the situation cannot reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise to a conflict of interest; or
- (b) the situation is authorised by the Directors in accordance with Article 6.12.

6.12 If a conflict of interests arises for a Director, the unconflicted Directors may authorise such a conflict of interests provided that:

- (a) the procedure in Article 6.13 is followed;
- (b) authorisation will not result in any direct or indirect Material Benefit being conferred on any Director or any Person Connected to a Director that would not be permitted by Article 8; and
- (c) the unconflicted Directors consider it is in the best interests of the Company to authorise the conflict of interest in the circumstances.

6.13 Whenever a Director has an interest in a matter to be discussed at a meeting of the Directors or a committee the Director concerned must:

- (a) declare his interest before discussion begins on the matter;
- (b) withdraw from the meeting for that item unless expressly invited to remain in order to provide information;
- (c) not be counted in the quorum for that part of the meeting;
- (d) withdraw during the vote and have no vote on the matter.

6.14 A procedural defect of which the Directors are unaware at the time does not invalidate decisions taken at a meeting.

7. POWERS OF DIRECTORS

7.1 The Directors shall manage the business of the Company and may exercise all the powers of the Company unless they are subject to any restrictions imposed by the Act, the Articles or any Special Resolution.

7.2 Without prejudice to Article 7.1, the Directors may:
